

The Hideaway

The Hideaway is a beautiful conversion of a historic mill in quiet, beautiful countryside

The Hideaway was fully refurbished in Spring 2018 and is set over the upper two floors of this stunning former water mill which dates back to 1750. With its own private entrance and garden area The Hideaway offers luxury country coastal living for those visiting Cornwall.

Guests will experience upside down living entering into the open plan lounge, kitchen and dining area with its vaulted ceilings and exposed wooden beams. This upper floor has skylights in addition to the lower windows and The Hideaway has its own heating controls.

The fully equipped kitchen enables guests to enjoy time at their pace with produce available locally for those wishing to get in touch with their culinary skills. A dishwasher, fridge, ice machine, wine fridge, oven, hob, toaster, kettle and coffee machine are available along with crockery, glassware, cutlery, bake and cookware for use during your time with us. The living area has a comfy sofa with Cornish tartan cushions and a large footstool for you to stretch out and relax whilst enjoying the cosy wood burning stove.

A staircase takes you down to your large bedroom with a super king size bed with bedding that will invite you to have a longer lie in. A raised bath in your bedroom is further complemented with an en suite shower room with rain fall shower head, toiletries, heated towel rail, natural daylight and guests will enjoy oversized fluffy towels and bath robes. Your bedroom has three windows for plenty of daylight affording views over the grounds and gardens.

A private seating area, with outdoor lighting, enables guests to relax and enjoy this secluded sun trap. Guests are welcome to explore the grounds which includes 6 acres of orchards, woodland and meadows bordered by the River Porth.
